

Irish Posture & Mobility Network (IPMN)
in conjunction with

Engineers Ireland Biomedical Engineering Division
Seating & Mobility Interest Group present

Posture & Mobility Day of Shared Learning

Trinity College Dublin

Friday 6th March 2020

Call For Speakers!

Have You Got Something Interesting to Share?

We encourage you to consider presenting at this key annual training and networking event

Past presenters have included users of posture and mobility products, Doctors, Nurses, Occupational Therapists, Physiotherapists, Prosthetists, Orthotists, Clinical & Rehabilitation Engineers and Technicians, Product Designers, Product Specialists, and Lecturers and Students of various fields.

- User Experience
- Case Studies
- Research
- Clinical Treatments
- Best Practice
- Policy Development
- Product Innovation
- Product Evaluation
- Service Development

Quick Facts

- Audience people from a wide range of backgrounds attend (in the auditorium, or online via webcast)
- Talk Duration most presentations are 12 minutes long
- Topics topics include those listed above; contact us for past programmes, or view them here: ipmn.ie
- Fee there's no fee, but it's a great opportunity to share work nationally with the IPMN audience
- Accessibility the venue is accessible; please let us know if you have particular requirements

Would You Like to Present?

- Contact Us please send your proposal (or enquiries) to us at: education@ipmn.ie use the email subject: "IPMN - DOSL 2020 - Presentation Proposal - <presentername>" outline the topic, working title, and client group (if relevant); use 50 to 150 words let us know the names, and professions or backgrounds, of presenters
- Deadline please make sure that your submission reaches us by Friday 01st November
- Conditions we'll send information about format, confidentiality and deadlines to those selected to present

Please pass on this flyer to anyone who might be interested in presenting